ENGLISH AFFAIRS.

Egyptian Politics--Trades Congress--Chinese Labor--French Distrust--Strength of the Administration.

NEW YORK, September 24.—A cable special of the 23d to the Tribune from London says: The surrender of Damietta finally disposes of the Egyptian rebellion. The English and the foreign press are in the thick of discussion on the resettlement of the country; but it seems to be forgotten that it practically remains with Gladstone to say whether there shall be any reference to Europe or not. The Powers agreed to British intervention on the understanding that any modification of the statu quo should be submitted to general consideration. At present the statu quo only is revived since the Khedive is resuming the Government with the old arrangements, including the Anglo-French control, in which the French representatives take part. It is quite probable, however, that Gladstone's scheme will make necessary some changes. It is likely they will be submitted to Parliament, and that then the Conference will assemble. As to the purchase of suzerainty, it is strongly pressed on the Government. England declares she will not encroach on the Sultan's rights. On the other hand, we hear from Vienna that Europe is quite willing to grant England the wardenship of the Suez Canal, with protection of territory on either side. The French papers, failing to observe that a contract still exists, are demanding that England shall compensate them for exclusion from Egypt. Gladstone's triumph in Egypt is a crushing blow to his opponents at home.

The Trades Congress has just concluded its annual session in Manchester. The Congress pronounced in favor of the nationalization of the land doctrine promulgated by George and taken up by Davitt, and denounced by Parnell. Davitt is shortly to introduce the subject to a West End audience in London. Mr. George has already laid his scheme before a gathering of clergy.

The proposal to introduce Chinese coolie labor has roused the indignation of London Democrats, who are about to appeal to the Prime Minister to influence the Chinese Government to stop the export. It is questionable whether the coolie laborer would succeed here, since it is impossible, save in one or two disagreeable and ill-paid occupations, to undersell the natives.

The distrust of Parnell among English Liberals has been increased by the publication of a letter in which he insists on the retirement of the Land League candidate for Derry, to secure the defeat of the Solicitor General.

The World's London cable of the 23d says: The Government is now beginning to realize the truth that there are many and great difficulties to be encountered in the process of arranging the Egyptian affairs. Gambettist organs in Paris, to begin with, are demanding the revival of the joint control, with influence in the affairs of Egypt utterly undiminished. At present, however, the British Government does not seem disposed to consent to any such proposition. The old control is believed to have had a great share in producing Arabi and the national party in Egypt, and consequently to have led to the war. Further, it is held that France has no right to enter Egypt on equal terms with England, having declined to take any part in putting down Arabi's insurrection. The irritation in France at being thus calmly and conspicuously elbowed out of the way can naturally be imagined, and it is evidently increasing every day, and may give rise to some serious complications.

Again Russia is arming extensively, and is said to be preparing to put in a demand for the whole of the Balkan peninsula. Whether she will or not, she will certainly endeavor to get another slice out of the Sultan's dominions by way of compensation for any gains England may make or be supposed to have made in Egypt. Italy is also determined not to be left out in the cold if she can help it by diplomacy or menace, and so you will see that the prospect is darkening rapidly, and that it will be by no means surprising should Gladstone's Administration alter its mind about recalling its troops from Egypt and decide instead to leave by far the larger part of the army in that country. The next step will probably be to submit plans for the settlement of the Egyptian question to a European conference. This, of course, will cause great delay, and in the meantime the British occupation the Khedive's country will go on, and perhaps gradually, almost imperceptibly, slip into a final settlement. In a matter like this, possession is half the battle, and it is also among the probabilities, that those who fondly believed that Mr. Gladstone would get out of Egypt, bag and baggage, as soon as the war was over will find that once again they have made a total mistake.

A hotel guest was standing having his clothes brushed. On finishing he handed a $5 bill to the hall boy. He grinned from ear to ear, and nearly broke his back bowing and thanking so generous a being. But his face fell so quickly that he had some trouble in catching it before it reached the floor when the generous being said, in tones not to be trifled with, "Get it changed." He went away and brought back the change—five one dollar bills. Deliberately pocketing four, the generous being handed the one remaining to the duster. Again a swooping bow from the dust broom, a "Thank you," and a sudden convulsion as the guest remarked in solemn tones, "Get it changed." Once more he departed and brought back two fifty-cent pieces. One went into the traveller's pocket, the other into the hall boy's palm. He smiled, said "Thank you," and was slipping it into his pocket, when "Get it changed" again rang in his ears. Two quarters came back with him this time which he handed to the guest, who putting one in his purse turned over the other to the hall boy. This time he was allowed to walk off nearly across the hall, when as if by an electric shock, he was brought to a standstill with those terrible words, "Get it changed." This time two dimes and a nickle were deposited in the hands of the guest, who put the two dimes in his pocket, handed the brush boy a nickle and walked in to dinner.

A physician at Lawton, Mich., is also a clergyman. In a bill which he recently rendered for "professional calls," was an item of $8 for visits, which, as the patient claimed, were solely to administer spiritual consolation, and therefore payment is refused. The doctor, on the other hand, declares that while it is true that he spent most of the time of these calls in prayer, he gave medicine for the body, too, and his charge is only for the latter. A lawsuit is to settle the dispute.

The other day it was noticed in Baltimore that the passengers on one side of the street were walking along under umbrellas, while those on the other side had none. This was very puzzling. Had there been a raid for the umbrellas upon one side and not on the other? Or did the people who could afford to carry umbrellas promenade on one side while those too poor even to steal them trot along on the other? A more searching investigation into this strange phenomenon showed that the reason was because it rained on one side and did not rain on the other.

In slavery days the chimes of St. Michael's Church, Charleston, were rung at 7 p. m. in winter and 8 in summer as a signal to negroes that their bedtime was nigh, and again an hour later to warn them to disappear from the streets, after which all blacks found abroad were arrested. The custom has continued until a few days ago, though nobody has obeyed the bells since the war. The mayor has now cut off the salary of the ringer and the act is exciting considerable discussion among the old residents.

Gilhooly strolled into Mose Schaumburg's store on Austin avenue, and after looking around he said to Mose, who, rubbing his hands, asked him what he wanted, "Will you be kind enough to bring me a glass of beer, some fried beefsteak with onions, some fried potatoes and some boiled cabbage?" replied Gilhooly. "Mishter Gilhooly, mine store vash not a restaurant." "What have I to do with that? You have a sign there that reads, 'If you don't see what you want, ask for it.' I want some grub, I don't see it, so I ask for it, and instead of bringing on the grub you go to telling me what your occupation is, as if I cared a cent. Why don't you take down your sign?" When last seen Mose was standing in a thoughtful attitude in front of that sign, absorbed in profound contemplation.—Texas Siftings.

THE brightest flowers must fade, but young lives endangered by severe coughs and colds may be preserved by Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Croup, whooping cough, bronchitis, in short all affections of thd throat and lungs, are relieved by this sterling preparation, which also remedies rheumatic pains, sores, bruises, piles, kidney difficulty, and is also economical. 57

AMONG the pains and aches cured with marvellous rapidity by Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, is ear-ache. The young are especiall ysubject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted not only to the above ailment, but also to the hurts, disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, to which the young are especially subject. Scrofula is a depraved condition of the system often hereditary, and characterized by indolent tumours, glandular affections, bad blood and a low condition of vitality that tends towards consumption, which is realy Scrofula of the Lungs. Burdock Blood Bitters cure Scrofulous diseases from a pimple to an Abscess, by purifying the blood, correcting the secretions and giving a healthy tone to each organ. (19)

SHAMEFUL NEGLECT.

Some weeks ago it was seen that the government were disposed to throw all possible obstacles in the way of the hearing of the Esquimalt election petition. They fought the petition in chambers until their counsel blushed to the roots of their hair and the government, from a sense of shame, were forced to drop further opposition. Yesterday the court sat again and after a material witness in support of the petition had been heard it was discovered that the government had neglected to comply with the act and appoint a short-hand reporter. An adjournment was therefore taken until to-day. In the meanwhile Mr. Theo. Davie has written the government to request that a reporter be appointed before 11 o'clock to-day, and failing compliance, that the court will be moved to direct the evidence to be taken down by the registrar. This neglect, or something worse, is inexcusable. Mr. Hett is a member of the government and knew, or ought to have known, what the act requires. In consequence of his laches the case goes over until to-day; and if the government should do, (what it is not improbable they will do), appoint some person now in California or Canada, the case will be postponed almost indefinitely unless the uniform patience and good nature of the learned judge should give way under the strain and he should decline to have the business of the court further trifled with.

The Socrot Pamphlet and Senator Macdonald's Card.

TO THE EDITOR:—The intemperate and abusive letter of Mr. Macdonald's in your issue of to-day has taken many of your readers by surprise. It certainly appears somewhat startling that a gentleman occupying the position of a senator should rush into print and insult Bishop Ridley, because, forsooth, he hears that the Bishop had a secret pamphlet printed and circulated. Is it impossible that a reply could be made to Mr. Macdonald's speech at the Reformed Church which might be otherwise than malicious, low-minded, immoral and unscrupulously untruthful?

But the letter will appear all the more extraordinary should it turn out to be the case that no such pamphlet has been published and that the doughty knight is leveling his lance at windmills that exist only in his own imagination. This I believe to be the true state of affairs; and it raises a strong supposition that were some such reply or pamphlet published the senator's withers would not be altogether unwrung. LOOKER-ON.

A Sham Battle.

TO THE EDITOR:—Could not our military authorities arrange a sham fight between the militia and the navy some time before the departure of our vicëregal visitors? If one could be arranged it would not only be a pleasing spectacle for His Excellency and Her Royal Highness, but it would also give our local corps the benefit of some practical experience in the defence of our coast. If this proposition commends itself to Acting D. A. G. Dupont our citizens may have an opportunity of witnessing the long-looked-for spectacle of a sham fight in which our own corps shall take part. No. 2.

CAUTION.

We beg to call the attention of the trade and the public to the well known quality and elegance of finish of our Gold Cases, guaranteed by us to be of eighteen karat Gold, U. S. Mint assay or of fourteen karat Gold, as may be stamped, and also to our mode of selling the same, charging only for the ACTUAL WEIGHT of the gold used, and not for the base metal comprised in springs, key pipes, filling of crown, etc. To illustrate which a tag accompanies each one of our Gold Cases, which plainly indicat not only the gross weight of the case, but also the NET weight of the gold.

In explanation of the above we desire to say that the old plan of charging for the gross weight of the case, as if it were all gold, worked well enough as long as the manufacturers were content with the amount of brass and steel actually required in its construction; but when the business was degraded into a contest as to who should get the most base metal into the least quantity of gold and call it a GOLD case, then the time came when, in the interest of dealers in American Watches, it became necessary to adopt a plan of selling, showing the buyer exactly how much GOLD each case contained.

To avoid imposition, purchasers of Waltham Watches will observe that every genuine watch, whether gold or silver, bears our trade mark on both case and movement. Gold cases are stamped "A. W. Co.," and guarantee certificates accompany them. Silver cases are stamped "A. M. Watch Co., Waltham, Mass., sterling silver," and are accompanied by guarantee certificates, signed R. E. Robbins, treasurer. The name "Waltham" is plainly engraved upon all movements, irrespective of either distinguishing marks. This caution is rendered necessary by reason of the fact that our cases are frequently separated from our movements, and put upon worthless movements of other makers and vice versa, thus affecting injuriously the performance of the watches, and vitiating our guarantee, which is intended to cover only our complete watches wholly made by us. It is necessary also, because it is so notorious as to be a public scandal that there is great fraud in the metal quality of both gold and silver cases as now generally sold. We have demonstrated by frequent assays that many gold and silver cases offered in the market are debased from 10 to 20 per cent. from the quality they assume to be. This is a fraud upon the purchaser, and accounts for the low price at which such cased watches have been sold.—AMERICAN WATCH COMPANY, Waltham, Mass. dw

THE LOST ASIA.

The Sufferings of the Survivors.

Mr. Tinkess, who with Miss Morrison, a young lady passenger of only 19 years, was saved from the wreck of the steamer Asia on Lake Huron, speaks as follows of the sufferings of the party who were in the boat when the steamer went down:

"We were at this time about 20 miles from shore, with no means of propelling the craft with the exception of a single paddle, which was of no earthly use. We drifted on in this way for some hours, our boat being full of water, when it became somewhat calm, and then the struggle with death began. The first to succumb of the now remaining seven was one of the strangers. The poor fellow made an effort to retain his hold on life, but he had to go. About two hours afterwards the other stranger followed him, and was laid in the bottom of the boat by the side of his dead comrade. About 5 o'clock in the evening land was signaled, and the cry of 'Saved!' was raised; but they little thought that before that shelter was reached they would be beyond all earthly aid. The mate now struck up the old familiar tune 'Pull for the Shore, Sailors, Pull for the Shore,' and we all heartily joined. Our voices were next heard reverently singing 'The Sweet By and By,' when we fondly thought we could meet on the shore to which we were now drifting. Shortly after the last notes had died away Mr. Little of Sault Ste. Marie lay down and breathed his life away. Shortly after this the lighthouse off Byng Inlet was sighted, and it was a grand sight to our weary eyes. About an hour and a half afterwards the mate, who was supported by the brave girl, who can truly be called the Grace Darling of modern times, laid down his weary head and went to his eternal rest. The captain, turning to me, said, 'The poor mate is gone.' Towards morning the captain appeared to drop asleep, and going towards him I shook him, asking him to wake up. He merely answered 'Yes,' and on my repeating it said he would be up in a minute. A huge wave then struck me from him, and when I returned he was dead. During all those terrible scenes of death, when our companions were dying one by one, it never occurred to me that I should be compelled to succumb, but felt perfectly sure that I would reach land safely. Miss Morrison appeared to be of the same mind, and kept up with a courage and determination almost entirely unheard of. We struck the beach at daybreak next morning, when we saw a derrick, which we mistook for a lighthouse, and we started to reach it. The girl, however, was unable to accomplish the task, and so sat down on the sand. I then removed all the bodies from the boat, and getting in we attempted in this way to reach the derrick; but between the delay on shore and the trouble of propelling our craft, we only succeeded in making a half mile before dark. That night (Friday) we slept on the beach, and next morning reached the derrick, when Miss Morrison's strength again gave out. That evening I hailed an Indian who was passing in a boat, and bargained with him to take us to Parry Sound. On Saturday morning the Indian furnished us with some breakfast, the first food we had eaten since the previous Wednesday evening. We had drifted some eighteen hours from the time we left the sinking vessel until we struck the beach."

ESQUIMALT ELECTION MATTER.

SUPREME COURT.

(Before the Hon. Mr. Justice Gray.)

THURSDAY, Oct. 5.

In the matter of the petition of M. Muir against the return of J. R. Hett, as representative of Esquimalt electoral district.

Mr. Theo. Davie appeared for the petitioner; Mr. Pollard and Mr. Walls for the respondent.

Mr. Davie said he proposed to proceed with the trial of the petition, which was against the return of J. R. Hett. At the last general election held at Esquimalt on the 24th of July last, when said J. R. Hett, H. Helgesen, C. E. Pooley and T. F. Child were candidates, J. R. Hett was returned as one of the successful candidates, he having obtained a certain number of illegal votes which gave him a majority of but one vote over C. E. Pooley—Mr. Hett receiving 74 votes, and Mr. Pooley 73. The votes of Joseph Lavender, T. McNally, A. Whetstone, R. Semple and A. C. Muir were objected to by the petitioner. The list of objections comprised several voters whose names had not been properly registered, but the objections on that ground were abandoned. The objections against C. Daley, M. W. Walsh, P. Quail and J. Sullivan would not be pressed. The grounds urged against Lavender and McNally were that they were not British subjects. Whetstone, Muir and Semple were each registered on another roll at the time of their voting and at the time of sending in their applications to be put on the Esquimalt roll. Semple and Whetstone were registered on the Cariboo roll, and Muir on the Nanaimo roll. Under section 50 of the Controverted Elections Act, the respondent is entitled to bring in recriminating evidence, and in this case the respondent had objected to the vote of J. C. Scott on the ground that he is an American citizen, and the vote of Wm. Dingle on the ground that he is not able to read or write, and the returning officer did not mark his ballot paper in the presence of the candidates. As the practice in England is the same as that pursued here, the first step will be for Mr. Pooley to place himself in the majority, and the respondent can then produce his recriminatory evidence. Such was the practice in the Stormont election case.

Mr. Justice Gray—That is the new practice. The old practice was to strike off vote for vote. The new practice is for the petitioner to first place himself in a majority, and then for the respondent to destroy the majority if he can. The whole matter is limited to the legality of seven votes—five on one side and two on the other. The petitioner proposes to prove the illegality of those five votes and then to ask the respondent to prove the illegality of his two votes.

Mr. Davie—The respondent will admit the fact that an election was held?

Mr. Justice Gray—If no election was held he cannot hold his seat.

Mr. Pollard said the respondent admitted that the election was duly held.

Mr. Davie said he had objected to voters on two grounds and would suggest that if there were any objections to the votes being struck off on those grounds that they should be urged now.

Mr. Justice Gray—First establish the fact that the man is an alien, and then if there is any contention it can be urged.

Mr. Davie said that the course he had suggested was followed in England.

JOSEPH LAVENDER

was then placed in the box and sworn.

Mr. Davie—Did you vote at the Esquimalt election?

Witness—Yes.

Mr. Davie—And your name is on the voters' list?

Witness—Yes.

Mr. Davie—Where were you born?

Witness—In the United States.

Mr. Davie—What's your age?

Witness—I'm not certain; think I'm about 47. My parents lived in the United States where I was born.

To Mr. Pollard—I was born in North Carolina. That was a slave state; my father and mother were free and all their children had to be bound out till they were 21 years old. Never voted in that state. Wasn't allowed to. Became a British subject about 16 years ago in the court-house opposite to this (pointing to the big government building); I went to get a marriage license and had to take the oath of allegiance before I could get a marriage license; don't know before whom I took the oath.

Mr. Pollard—Did you say you had a paper?

Witness—My marriage certificate. (Laughter.)

Mr. Pollard—You say you took the oath of allegiance?

Witness—The man said I'd have to take the oath of allegiance less I couldn't get no marriage certificate. I applied to Mr. Pemberton for a certificate and he told me I'd have to come over the bridge and get one; I come to the big building in the square; saw a man there; don't know who he was.

Mr. Justice Gray—The only oath a man takes on such an occasion is an oath of allegiance to his wife.

Witness—Your honor, you'll see it all on the books. He told me I'd have to take the oath of allegiance; I said, "all right, if I'd have knowed it I wouldn't have come; but since I was there I'd take it (roars of laughter); I took the oath before the man and a week or two afterwards I got married (certificate produced in two pieces, the date was 18th August, 1866,); did nothing more towards getting naturalized.

Mr. Davie then proceeded to show that the man, being a foreigner, was disqualified as a voter.

Mr. Justice Gray—Was there not an Act in existence in the colony of British Columbia which allowed aliens to vote?

Mr. Davie—Yes; but that Act is not now in force.

Mr. Pollard drew attention to the fact that the Act required the evidence to be taken down in shorthand.

Mr. Davie said the government should have appointed a reporter, and failing that the court had the power to have evidence taken down in any way it might direct. The registrar could take the evidence under the orders of the court.

Mr. Justice Gray—Does the government contemplate the appointment of a shorthand reporter?

Mr. Pollard—It is not the duty of the government to provide a reporter.

Mr. Justice Gray said it was the duty of the petitioner to apply to the government for the appointment of a shorthand reporter, and if the government failed to comply the court would then appoint the registrar to take down the evidence. It was better to be a little slow and sure than to be fast and foolish.

The court directed that an application should be made to to the lieut.-governor in council for the appointment of a reporter, meanwhile the legal points might be argued. If the government desired to expedite the matter they could act now.

Mr. Pollard objected to arguing the law points until the testimony had been all taken down.

Mr. Davie—You may have an adjournment for two weeks.

Mr. Pollard—We don't wish it.

Mr. Davie—Then what do you wish?

Mr. Pollard—Let a reporter be appointed in the regular way.

The Court—Do you wish me to appoint a reporter?

Mr. Pollard—Not until the Act has been observed. If your lordship wishes to appoint one—

Mr. Justice Gray—Oh, not at all. You are not going to have a gaievance against the court after all the evidence is in (a laugh). We must exhaust the powers of the Act first. The court is not to be caught in that way (a laugh).

Mr. Davie—I shall apply for the appointment of a reporter to-day.

Mr. Pollard—Very well.

Mr. Justice Gray—I shall adjourn the court till 11 o'clock to-morrow, and if by that time the government shall not have complied with the Act I shall appoint a reporter.

The court then adjourned.

Harvest Thanksgiving Service.

Last evening a full choral harvest thanksgiving service was held in Christ Church Cathedral, the chancel of which was very tastefully decorated for the occasion by some of the ladies of the congregation. Beneath the chancel window the centre space was outlined in three gothic panels in evergreens or moss filled in with a ground of blue silk, in the centre panel being a large cross surmounted by a crown, both executed in flowers. The side panels were ornamented with other designs. The rest of the wall on either side was covered with a white ground bordered with moss or evergreens, upon which were outlined circular panels containing various designs. Above this across the chancel wall was the motto, "Thou crownest the year with goodness," and below the motto, "The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof." The The pulpit was beautifully decorated with choice flowers as also the choir stalls and prayer desk, and at the foot of the pulpit, lectern and prayer desk were laid harvest offerings of various fruits of the earth. There was a large congregation, and the clergymen who officiated were his lordship the bishop of Columbia, the Rev. W. Clarke, rector of Nanaimo, the Rev. F. Wright, of Saanich, also the Revs. Shildrick, Malachi and Holmes. Mr. Cross presided at the organ, the choir being under the leadership of Mr. Austin. After the voluntary, a processional hymn (No. 382) was sung. The proper psalms for the day, 145th and 147th, then followed, and after them the "Magnificat." The service was intoned by the Rev. Mr. Wright. The first lesson was read by the Rev. Mr. Holmes and the second by the Rev. Mr. Shildrick. The musical portion of the service continued with the Deus Miserantur and the anthem "Praise ye the Lord for his goodness," by Garnett, which was finely rendered. There were also several hymns in different portions of the service. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Wm. Clarke, rector of Nanaimo, who took for his text Deut. 26th chap., 10th and 11th verses. The reverend gentleman in an eloquent discourse briefly alluded to the occasion and dwelt upon the necessity of making a public recognition of God's bounty, and that private gratitude was not sufficient. He referred to such services instituted for the Jews under the ceremonial law and concluded by saying that there were many other national and private blessings besides a bountiful harvest that we ought to be thankful for, though often we enjoyed them almost unconsciously. At the close of the service a hymn was sung and a collection taken up, the people being dismissed by a benediction by his lordship the bishop of Columbia.

The Sherman Circus Troupe.

Owing to the late arrival of the North Pacific yesterday afternoon the Sherman Circus Company were not able to perform last night. This was a disappointment to the general public, as for several days past an evening with this excellent troupe had been looked forward to with much interest. Wherever they have exhibited the press are quite in accord as to the merits of the performers, and the crowded audiences which have everywhere patronized them fully sustain the encomiums thus bestowed. The following extract is from a leading Sound paper:—

"The great Sherman circus has come and gone. They had at Weston a $1200 house and gave good satisfaction. The intelligence displayed by the trained horses was something so unique and unlike the ordinary conception of that animal that the hundreds greeted their feats with huzzas of astonishment and delight. The various riding performances, intermingled with clownish comicalities, were in their way well worthy the entrance fee, while the trapeze dexterity displayed was very entertaining. Altogether it was a success, and another visit will be immensely patronized."

The circus will open this afternoon with a matinee at 2 o'clock, on corner of Douglas and Johnson streets, and another performance will be given in the evening.

DENIAL.—Mr. Beaven denies that he wrote the "D. L." letter. The public won't give much for the denial of a man who holds on to office after the popular verdict has declared against him, who during the canvass said Mr. Dunsmuir's railway scheme if adopted would ruin the country, and who professed to have information that Mr. Dunsmuir had bought out the Clements syndicate. Such a politician would do anything to get into Mr. Dunsmuir's favor; and if he did not write the communication referred to he at least inspired it. It won't do, Mr. B.

ANOTHER LARGE BUILDING.—The contract for Col. Powell's new residence corner of Vancouver street and Burdett avenue was signed yesterday. It will be one of the handsomest and most commodious dwelling houses in the city. Only the stone and woodwork of the outside walls and roof will be done this fall, and after all shrinkage has taken place next spring the building will be completed. Messrs. Smith & Clarke have the carpentering work and Mr. E. Harrison the painting.

LAST evening the steamer North Pacific arrived from the Sound with 41 passengers and a considerable amount of freight, among which was the outfit of Sherman's circus, including seven trained horses, two wagons and ten tons of circus fittings. The North Pacific also brought 38,000 feet of lumber from Tacoma to Port Townsend for the Idaho.

LIEUT.-GOVERNORSHIP OF MANITOBA.—Hon. James C. Aikins has been appointed Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba in the place of Hon. Joseph E. Cauchon, whose term expires on the 8th instant.

Municipal Police Court.

(Before Hon. A. E. Pemberton.)

THURSDAY, October 5th.

LARCENY.

The trial of Theo. Heaton remanded from the 4th inst. on a charge of stealing blankets from the Driard House was continued.

Mr. Weston appeared for the prisoner.

Hop Yen testified he had been employed at the Driard House 5 years and was employed there now. He made the beds up. The blankets produced in court belonged to No. 2 room. They were worth $12, each pair when new. Their value now is about $22 for both pairs. There were 25 pair of of blankets in the Driard House similar to those produced. The blankets formerly had a paper at the corner but now it is gone.

The prisoner said he had no statement to make to the court at all, with the exception that he was not guilty.

Officer Lewis testified that he was sent by officer Shepherd to get the blankets from Mr. Dossetter that had been stolen, and take them to the police barracks which he did and left them in charge of officer McLeod

Officer McLeod testified that he received the blankets from constable Lewis.

Mr. Morley said he wished to address the court. The prisoner was under his orders to leave the blankets anywhere out of reach of the fire. The prisoner had dropped the blankets and hastened to his room at Bowman's, where he met the chief and himself and was arrested.

Officer Walsh stated that Mr. Bamfield, expressman, moved a bundle of blankets in his presence and brought them to the city police court.

The prisoner was committed for trial, but bail was allowed, two sureties in $100 and the accused in his own recognizance for $200.

New Brick and Stone Buildings.

The value of brick and stone buildings erected this year and still to be put up far exceeds that of any one season since Victoria sprang into existence 24 years ago. These edifices will cost at least $130,000; the greater part of which sum has been expended on Wharf street. Here Hon. R. Finlayson has a $50,000 block; and close alongside Mr. James Yates has expended $18,000. Further north on the corner of Wharf and Johnson streets Mr. Jensen has an addition to the Occidental Hotel nearly completed which will cost fully $10,000 without counting the price of the ground which was another $10,000. Coming up to Government street the expenditure on The Colonist new three-story home on the site of the old Theatre Royal will amount to at least $13,000. A number of smaller buildings have been erected varying in cost from $4,000 to $8,000, among which are the warehouse of Mr. S. J. Pitts, corner of Yates street and Waddington alley, the fine store of Mr. J. Rhode on Store street; Mr. Anderson's store corner of Johnson street and Oriental alley; Mr. Smeaton's store on Government opposite the Albion House; Mrs. Macdonald's brick on the corner of Courtenay and Douglas; the Chinese warehouse on Herald street; councillor Boyd's store adjoining the club and the addition to the public school or school reserve. Building in wood has also been very brisk; a large number of excellent dwelling houses have added very considerably to the value of rateable property in this city.

A "Sham" all 'Round.

The Standard was the victim of a sham(e)less wag yesterday. It announced under one of the stirring headings for which it has lately become disagreeably conspicuous that there would be "a sham fight" at Point Macauley early yesterday morning; that the battery there would be manned and detachments from the Comus and Kingfisher landed and manœuvred in the presence of Her Royal Highness and suite. The fight and manœuvres were indeed "a sham." The paragraph was "a sham" also; and none were more surprised at the announcement than the parties who were represented as taking part therein.

ACCIDENT ON THE H. B. CO.'S WHARF.—As the gang plank of the steamer Otter was being hauled in yesterday morning when that vessel was leaving for the north, it fell on one of the deck hands, an Indian, and broke his leg. The man was conveyed to the Royal Hospital where he was properly cared for.

SUPPRESSED.—It is reported that the pamphlet which Bishop Ridley caused to be printed has been suppressed. All lovers of harmony in church circles will be glad to hear that the report is confirmed. We have secured a copy, but shall certainly not be the first to give it currency.

FOR YALE.—The steamer R. P. Rithet left yesterday at 2 o'clock p. m. for Yale direct with a heavy freight and a great many passengers, among whom were a large number of mechanics recently brought out from the eastern provinces by Mr. Onderdonk to work on the C. P. R. R.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND SYNOD.

The synod of the diocese of Columbia assembled at Christ Church on Thursday Oct. 5. Proceedings commenced by divine service being held and holy communion administered. The sermon was preached by the Right Rev. the Bishop of Caledonia.

After service the president—the Lord Bishop of Columbia, introduced the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Caledonia and the Rev. A. C. Wright chaplain of Her Majesty's ship Comus, who were invited to take seats in the synod. Prayer having been offered the usual business of electing clerical and lay secretaries, treasurer and auditors was proceeded with. The Rev. C. H. Badgley and Mr. M. W. T. Drake were reelected clerical and lay secretaries, and Mr. E. Johnson treasurer. Mr. W. C. Ward and Mr. Rom Harvey were reappointed auditors. The address by the president touched upon matters of deep interest to the Colonial Church and the church generally such as the Grahamstown case and marriage with a deceased wife's sister.

The election of the executive committee followed, resulting in the following members being elected to fill the place of those retiring by rotation: the Ven. Archdeacon Mason, Rev. D. Holmes and Rev. W. H. Clarke, clerical; and Messrs. J. H. Innes, W. C. Ward and A. C. Anderson, lay members. The reports of the executive committee, mission board, etc., were then read. The assessment of districts for the income of the clergy and synod expenses was apportioned. The proposition that the synod should henceforth meet biennially instead of annually was confirmed.

The Rev. C. H. Badgley then spoke concerning the advisability of attempting and carrying out the plan for the establishing of a college school on a more permanent basis and for the imparting of a higher education than has heretofore been attempted. A discussion followed upon the proposal to organize a provincial synod for the province of British Columbia. The following address to the Bishop of Caledonia was proposed by Mr A. C. Anderson and seconded by Mr. O'Reilly:

"The bishop, clergy and lay delegates of the diocese of Columbia welcome you as a visitor at our synod. We desire to assure you of our prayerful interest in all your work. We are thankful that one of so large experience both in the mission field and in parochial ministrations in England should have accepted the call to preside over the arduous northern diocese of the Church of England in this province, where so much opportunity is afforded of zealous labor for the evangelization and improvement of the native tribes. We have gladly noticed that your advent has given fresh impetus to this important work, and that not only have additional clergy followed you out from England and more are expected, but that under your auspices and by much of your own labor translations of holy scripture and the prayer book have been printed and published for the first time in no less than three different Indian languages. May you long be spared to the good work and be blest in the end by a rich reward."

Mr. O'Reilly in seconding this address said he had been a good deal about in the diocese of Caledonia, and could testify to the high esteem in which his lordship was held. The work, too, was of an important character, and he felt sure that the bishop was precisely the man to undertake the responsibility of carrying it out.

The bishop replied in suitable terms, expressing a hope that the success which had already attended his labors might be increased and the work extended, as more laborers for the mission were expected.

Mr. R. E. Jackson moved and Mr. O'Reilly seconded the following resolution.

"That a clergyman should visit each of the mission stations and hold services at least once a month in every station during the months between February and November." Carried.

A vote of thanks was unanimously accorded to the Bishop for the manner in which he had presided. The Te Deum being said and the benediction given the synod adjourned.

Washington Territory.

The steamer Evangel made a good beginning on the New Westminstor route yesterday. A single shipment of hers was 250 barrels of flour, sent by W. D. Scott & Co., of this city, besides which she was to take 75 tons of barley from Whidby Island. This was certainly an excellent, encouraging beginning, and we trust it will be followed by similar cargoes on the occasion of each trip. Mr. MacCulsky, of the firm named, went over with the Evangel, to do what he could towards enlarging the trade between Seattle and the mainland of British Columbia. Like efforts will follow on the part of other merchants.—Post-Intelligencer.

A Henderson, of Dungeness, had 14 acres in wheat. He has just threshed and measured 954 bushels from this land. Of the 14 acres there were 5 that averaged 91 bushels per acre. How would our eastern friends like to raise such crops as this one? The wheat was all of the best market quality.—P. T. Argus.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 30.—A Vicksburg special says: This morning, at 3 o'clock, a fire broke out on the steamer R. E. Lee while on her trip to this city, about thirty miles below here, resulting in the total destruction of the boat, with a terrible loss of life. The U. S. mail was lost, together with a cargo of 500 bales of cotton. The boat had just been overhauled and painted, and was on her first trip for this season. She left Vicksburg yesterday afternoon for New Orleans with 500 bales of cotton and a good list of passengers. While opposite Point Pleasant, at 3:30 a. m., she was discovered to be on fire, and was headed for the Louisiana shore, landing at a point 35 miles below Vicksburg. Five minutes after making the landing she was enveloped in flames. Twenty-one persons perished, including some of the crew.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 4.—The greatest excitement prevailed at the Oil Exchange again to-day, and transactions were the largest of the week, aggregating 84,600,000 for $96,000 barrels. The market opened with sales at 92 and declined to 92½, and then became firmer, recovered and steadily advanced until the close, when 95 was bid.

EUROPE.

VIENNA, Oct. 2.—Advices from Presburg report anti-Jewish riots there. The mob broke windows in many houses occupied by Jews. The military restored order after making 40 arrests. The rioters declared that what they had done was merely a prelude to what was coming. The shops and warehouses of Jews were forced open and plundered. Rioters offered to the military obstinate resistance, some of them seizing the soldiers' bayonets with their hands. Similar excesses were committed in the neighborhood of the town of Blumenthal, where thirty persons were arrested. Several hundred Jews have fled to Vienna.

PARIS, Oct. 2.—By a treaty with King Baltkes France is expected to gain control of the Congo country. King Leopold in a letter to M. DeLesseps has recognized this as an accomplished fact. The French papers represent Stanley as having tried to supplant the French, and demand an immediate ratification of the treaty.

Certainly there is an air of romance and of tragedy about the story of Dhuleep Singh, who, it is announced, intends now to seek election to the British House of Commons. He began life as a Maharajas of the Punjab, possessor of the Kohinoor and other almost boundless wealth. After ruinous treaties, he now bids fair to close his career in the position of Squire of Elvedon, a quiet English country gentleman, without the Kohinoor or any of his former vast possessions, save an annuity from the Government of $125,000, which, by his luxurious habits, he has already reduced to $65,000 per annum. True, he has purchased estates and built magnificent palaces in England, Elveden Hall having cost $300,000, but by act of Parliament all these must be sold at his death, leaving his heir only the name and the memory of the son of the "Lion of the Punjaub."

The farmers of Nairnshire, in Scotland, have been greatly annoyed by rooks and wild pigeons, and early in the season formed an association for their destruction. In order to pay the cost of killing these birds they assessed themselves 2s 6d per plough, and then offered rewards of a penny per head for rooks and three farthings for pigeons. It is estimated that some 4000 rooks and 1000 pigeons have in consequence been killed by the gamekeepers of Nairnshire.

An extraordinary haul of salmon—the largest, it is said, within living memory—was got on the Tyne recently. No less than 14 tons of salmon passed through Newcastle station on one day, and the takes since then have been much above the average.

The remains of Charles William Fry, described as staff bandmaster in the Salvation Army, were recently interred in the Necropolis at Glasgow, the funeral obsequies exciting much public interest. The deceased having died at Polmont, whither he had gone for the benefit of his health, his body was brought on to Queen street station, where it was met by many "staff officers." The coffin, covered with the colors of the "Army" and wreaths of flowers, was placed in an open hearse. The cortege passed into George square, where some 600 "soldiers," meanwhile being marshaled, followed, accompanied by two bands. The procession, interspersed with draped banners, passed along the main thoroughfares to the Necropolis, hymns being played by the bands and sung by the "soldiers." At the grave Edmunds and Reynolds, who style themselves "majors," conducted the burial service, the former passing a warm eulogy on the deceased. Three shouts of "Hallelujah, Amen!" equivalent to three volleys, brought the funeral to a close.

The Westminster and Chelsea News reports a strange state of morals among upper-class English women. It says: "Again rumors are in circulation as to the want of common honesty among people of wealth and position. There are, it is true, fewer advertisements this season for Indian shawls carried off from cloak-rooms at evening parties; a cloak lined with rabbit-skin left in lieu of one with sable; a valuable fan disappearing from a side table, or a lace handkerchief taken from a dressing table. Hostesses have become very careful, having regard to the reputation of their houses, and place in the ladies' cloak-rooms attendants selected for their trustworthiness as well as vigilance. But still strange things do sometimes happen. The advertising columns of a daily contemporary a few days ago contained a suggestive appeal: 'The lady who owned by mistake [the italics are my own] the emerald, diamond and red enamel serpent-head bracelet at the —— ball is requested to return it,' etc. The ball in question was under the most distinguished patronage, tickets for which could only be obtained by vouchers from ladies of title."

MONTREAL, Sept. 22.—A lawyer named Phileas Lanctot this morning created considerable scandal in the Circuit Court. The Hon. Mr. Justice Rainville was presiding, and Mr. Phileas Lanctot, advocate, wished to plead a case, which His Honor declined to hear before its turn. Mr. Lanctot contended that his turn was next, and began rather excitedly to assert what he claimed to be his right. The judge responded that he would not debate the matter with him, and when the advocate continued His Honor told Mr. Watier, the crier, to invite Mr. Lanctot to retire from the Court. Mr. Lanctot noisily dared the crier to lay a hand upon him, and when Mr. Watier took him gently by the arm he gave the officer a smart slap in the face, and that immediately under the eyes of the Bench. Mr. Watier clutched him by the throat, but His Honor interfered, and told the crier to let him go. Turning to the disturbing lawyer, His Honor said, "When you are sober the Court will settle this matter." "Vous avez menti" ("You lie"), shouted the lawyer to His Honor, "I'm not drunk at all." He repeated several times that His Honor was "a liar," and used other grossly offensive terms. He was removed from the Court-room by some members of the bar.

The damage is only slight. The storm was the heaviest that has passed over this locality for some time.

At the Kent Assizes yesterday, Wm. Rowland, a farmer of Howard township, was found guilty of the murder of his wife by shooting her on June 14th. He was recommended to mercy by three of the jury. His Lordship passed capital sentence, but declined to make any recommendations to the Executive Government either for or against the prisoner. The defence set up was that the shot was fired under the influence of a delusion or hallucination, as indicated by the notion that his wife was trying to poison him.

CARTRIGHT, Sept. 22—Considerable excitement prevails here to-night on account of striking an extensive gas vein at a depth of 110 feet while boring for water on the property of Mr. James Dunlop. A pipe has been attached to the well and the gas lit, which illuminates the town. It is the intention of Mr. Dunlop to convey the gas to his factory and planing mills to be used as fuel.

TORONTO, Sept. 23—The erection of government buildings at Regina, commonly known as Pile o' Bones, is to be proceeded with forthwith. They comprise the lieut.-governor's residence, council chamber, store house and police barracks. The residence will be a solid brick building with stone dressing, two storeys high. Its cost is estimated at $25,000, and it is expected to be completed in August next. The other buildings will be temporary wooden ones. The present population of the Northwest capital is about 400.

NOTICE.

I HEREBY GIVE NOTICE THAT I INTEND TO make application to the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works to purchase one hundred and sixty (160) acres of land at Kootenay Lake, described as follows:—

Commencing at a stake on the East shore of Kootenay Lake, being about 12 miles in a North-easterly direction from the outlet of Kootenay Lake said stake being on the North shore of a small bay, thence true East 40 chains; thence true North 40 chains; thence true West 40 chains, more or less, to the shore line of Kootenay Lake; thence in a Southerly direction, along the meanderings of the lake, to the point of commencement, and containing 160 acres or more.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S

CHLORODYNE

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

Advice to Invalids—If you wish to obtain quiet, refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media, and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by Dr. J. Collis Browne (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c.

☞From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5th, 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russell street, Bloomsbury, London. Dear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly esteemed medicine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a DELIBERATE BREACH OF FAITH ON THE PART OF THE CHEMIST TO PRESCRIBER AND PATIENT ALIKE. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the Inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which, he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See "The Times," July 13, 1864.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9., 4s 6d, and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

Caution—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.
